

Collaborations for resilient and healthy people: WASH systems and COVID-19 response

Water For Women

WaterAid

unicef

Australian Aid

Workshop Introduction

Catarina de Albuquerque

CEO, Sanitation and Water for All

Panel Discussion

Collaborations for resilient and healthy people:
WASH systems and COVID-19
response

Moderator: Rosie Wheen
Chief Executive Officer
WaterAid Australia

Panel: Yustina Tutuanita
Sanitation Section Coordinator,
Ministry of Health, Indonesia

Gerard Cheong
Assistant Director, Water Section
Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade,
Australia

Sarah Nandudu
National Coordinator
National Slum Dweller Federation of Uganda

Andrea Rossi
Regional Social Policy Adviser
UNICEF in East Asia & Pacific Regional Office

Table Discussions

	Case study to kick start discussion	Facilitators
1	District-level collaborations: Nepal	Ratan Budhathoki– SNV
2	District-level collaborations: PNG	Winnie Sagiū – East Sepik Provincial Health Authority, PNG
3	District-level collaborations: Bhutan	Kencho Wangdi -SNV
4	District-level collaborations: Nepal	Labisha Uprety - IWMI
5	District-level collaborations and private sector involvement: Cambodia	Tyler Kozole - iDE Cambodia
6	Engaging and empowering communities for transformational WASH during COVID-19	Sarah Nandudu – National Slum Dweller Federation of Uganda
7	Adapting DFAT’s programming and funding to respond to WASH needs during COVID-19	Gerard Cheong - DFAT
8	Global Learnings on WASH systems and collaboration during COVID-19	Lucinda O’Hanlon- SWA
9	Real-time monitoring for WASH and COVID-19	Yustina Tutuanita – MOH Indonesia Muhammad Zainal – UNICEF Indonesia
10	Findings from UNICEF’s regional policy analysis.	Andrea Rossi – UNICEF
11	Hand hygiene for all - National planning and regulation	Brooke Yamakoshi - UNICEF
12	Public Private Partnerships for Handwashing	Preetha Prabhakaran Bisht– UNICEF Indonesia

Collaborations for resilient and healthy people: WASH systems and COVID-19 response
WASH & The COVID-19 Pandemic Virtual Symposium