

D. GEDSI - from inclusion to transformation in water management and WASH

D3: Translating inclusive guidelines & tools into practice

Facilitator: Anindrya Nastiti, Institut Teknologi Bandung

Successful Sanitation: Investigating gender equality in India's National Sanitation Programming

Hannah Jayne Robinson

University of Leeds

"Building common ground and collective strength" - the application of the feminist participatory action research in water governance in Mekong

Kaneka Keo

Mekong Water Governance Program, Oxfam

Perceptions of GEDSI-WASH climate resilient practices in post-Covid Fijian resorts

Bronwyn Powell

International WaterCentre

Nanise Masau

University of the South Pacific, Fiji

Translating disability inclusive WASH policies into practice: lessons learned from Cambodia

Jane Wilbur

London School Hygiene and Tropical Medicine

Making Participatory Design Inclusive: Including diverse residents in water and sanitation infrastructure design

Josaia Thaggard & Liza Icha Marzaman

Revitalising Informal Settlements and their Environments (RISE)

Participatory Platform to Ensure Equitable WASH Provision in Healthcare Facilities in Indonesia

Annisa Pramesti Putri and Saniya Niska

SNV Netherlands Development Organisation Indonesia

