

WFW PNG GEDSI SELF-ASSESSMENT

Nancy Wobo Sumae

World Vision

Papua New Guinea

WATER
& WASH 2023
FUTURES

Achieving SDG6 in a Changing Climate

#WaWF23

Purpose

- Provide opportunity to reflect on the progress against WFW fund
- Identify gaps and plans for work on inclusion
- Measured progress towards transformative practice in the project and within organisation
- Identify gaps in practice and strategies to strengthen gender equality and diversity inclusion

Capacity Building

PWDs attained Financial literacy
Certificate-BSP

Inclusive WASH

PWD access safe drinking water

Women Economic Empowerment

Middle Fly District-MHM pad & Mask sewing

South Fly District-MHM pad & Mask display

“GEDSI SAT is user-friendly promote gender equality and social inclusion in all WASH programs bring forth equitable and sustainable outcomes”

WfW WAVE Project staff

“I didn’t take GEDSI as important due to strong cultural norms. The tool encourages gender and disability inclusive leaving no one behind”

WfW WAVE Male Project staff

“Remove Barriers, Make Rights Real for Persons with Disability. Nothing about us without us”

Rose Kehannie – Coordinator Callan Inclusive Education Rehabilitation Centre

“Partnership and Collaboration strengthen women’s organisation. Alone we can do little, together we can do so much. Mobilization of women from lower level of Government and Wards provide a firm base on which the council of women stands as an organisation”

Daiu Gairi, Western Province, President Council of Women

Western Provincial Council of Women Annual General Meeting